

Join us in Honoring our Heritage

Saturday, September 21, 2019

Camp William Penn* and Historic La Mott Day

10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Opening ceremony: 10:00 at Camp William Penn Gate
7322 Sycamore Ave., La Mott, PA 19027

- *Visit encampments: USCT 3rd and 6th Regiments and PA. 53rd Infantry Re-enactors and learn about the life of the Civil War soldier
- *Visit Camp William Penn Museum and see the 8' recruiting poster as well as the banner Lucretia Mott, Emily Taylor and William Lloyd Garrison carried in their marches for women's rights in England
- *Visit with Mr. Lincoln or listen to poetry readings
- *Living History Demonstrations include ammunition making as well as soldier pastimes such as baseball and dominoes
- *Civil War Medical and Surgical instrument 'show and tell' in our barn
- *Book signings as well as opportunity to talk with the authors
- *Presentations about African American Women in the Civil War, Philadelphia National Cemetery, The Cruel and Unusual, Effects of a Fatal Shooting at Camp William Penn as well as presentations about our neighbors, Elstow Manor and Lynnwood Hall
- *La Mott History display, La Mott Fire Company display and Fire Truck
- *Local history organizations will have informative tabletop displays
- *Take a walking tour of Historic La Mott

Closing ceremony: 3:30 at Flagpole (corner Sycamore and Willow)

*Camp William Penn, located in what is now modern day La Mott, was the first and largest Federal training site for colored soldiers during the Civil War

Citizens for the Restoration of Historical La Mott

=====

E:mail pt@usct.org tele 215-885-2258 –1618 Willow Avenue, La Mott. PA 19027