7:30 P.M. – 8:30 P.M. The Historical Commission will be commemorating Black History Month with a special presentation by Professor Reginald Pitts, State University of New York, who will introduce us to the Montier Family. The family is descended from the youngest child of Philadelphia merchant, Richard Morrey, son of the first Mayor of Philadelphia. The Family and ancestral home were featured in a recent WHY Y documentary.

Refreshments will be served following the presentation.
